Instructions:

Attempt all five questions. All questions carry equal marks.

Q.1. Hector Bolitho in his autobiography of Mr. JINNAH, titled JINNAH Creator of Pakistan writes, "His name was now the one light of hope for most of the Muslims in India... called him Quaid-i-Azam, the Great Leader." Describe Mr. JINNAH'S contribution to Pakistan Movement with a focus on his leadership which not only helped in creating a separate state for the Muslims but also in setting them free from Congress tyranny and the British dictatorship (CLO-1).

Q.2. Pakistan's geographic placement makes it an important country specifically of the south Asian region. This region is sensitive both in terms of geopolitical rivalries and collaboration. Interpret the geopolitical and strategic significance of Pakistan keeping in view the major geopolitical concerns that the country is experiencing at the moment as well as the opportunities of cooperation emerging in the recent geopolitical scenario (CLO-2).

Q.3. Pakistan's current economic situation seems to be far from satisfactory. "Hyperinflation, a weakening rupee, and fiscal and monetary tightening under the IMF package had already been affecting economic growth when the torrential rains and melting glaciers drowned large parts of the country." Discuss in detail the current economic crisis facing the country with special reference to the above-mentioned problems (CLO-1).

Q.4. An article published in a local leading English newspaper recently aptly describes the challenges being faced by Pakistan when it comes to maintaining harmonious relations with the superpowers as it has been put "Pakistan's relations with China will remain its overriding priority... Pakistan wants to improve its relations with Washington. But relations will inevitably be affected by Washington's ongoing confrontation with Beijing, which American officials declare has an adversarial dimension while China attributes a cold war mindset to the US...." Interpret Pakistan's relations with the superpowers in context of the country's national interest (CLO-2).

Q.5. Explain the main provisions of the international convention on rights of the child and convention on the elimination of discrimination against women under the UN auspices taking into account the present status of children and women in Pakistan (CLO-1).

Instructions:

Attempt all five questions. All questions carry equal marks.

Q.1. According to an account of Encyclopedia Britannica, "The fall of Mughal Empire meant for fifty million Muslims in India at that time, the loss of pride, property and power especially in the Hindu dominated areas, where they lived in degradation and misery, excluded from all but humble posts in the British administration. The tragic circumstances of the Muslims at last bred the leader they needed." Keeping in view the above-statement, describe SIR SYED AHMED KHAN's contribution in Muslim reawakening and in evolution of the TWO-NATION theory (CLO-1).

Q.2. The world at the moment seems to be going through huge geopolitical challenges in a sense positive as well as negative. There are also indications of a "return to great power politics" with the East/West confrontation increasing rapidly. Interpret the geopolitical and strategic significance of Pakistan with reference to its geographic placement and also in context of a world trying to deal with a new cold war (CLO-2).

Q.3. The essence of the Constitution of 1973 lies in its federal/ parliamentary structure and in an independent judiciary. The Constitution upholds the concept of parliamentary supremacy; it allows the provinces to have autonomy within their own sphere of power under a federal set-up and it gives space to judiciary to operate within its jurisdiction of authority. Explain the main provisions of the Constitution of 1973 with a focus on its true essence (CLO-1).

Q.4. Pakistan has finally succeeded in concluding an agreement with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) under which the country would receive a "short term $3billion loan structured over a period of nine months." Though the deal has saved Pakistan from a possible default, however, a few conditions attached to it could generate painful consequences particularly for the common people as "economic analysts and commentators have warned, Pakistan still faces a tough road ahead." Interpret the present economic crisis of Pakistan with reference to major economic concerns and problems (CLO-2).

Q.5. During his recent visit to United States of America the Indian prime minister when asked about human rights situation in India responded saying "there is absolutely no discrimination." Commenting on Indian prime minister's recent visit to Washington, one of the leading local English newspaper editorial argued "...the BJP has unleashed a vicious brand of political" national identity "to reduce Muslims to second-class status and while the treatment of Kashmiris by the 'world's biggest democracy' is an affront to democratic values." Discuss Pakistan- India relationship in relation to the Kashmir issue and the latest developments surrounding the issue (CLO-1).
