

NED UNIVERSITY OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY
DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE & INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
SSCS, Midterm Examination Spring 2026

Time: 90 minutes

Business Communication (EA-218) – B

Max Marks: 20

Note: Attempt all questions in your answer script.

Q1) [CLO-2]

[2 Marks]

Identify whether each statement reflects a High-Context or Low-Context culture. Provide a brief explanation for each.

Statements:

- A. Building long-term relationships and trust is considered more important than written contracts in business dealings.
B. During meetings, team members are encouraged to openly express disagreement and give direct feedback.

Q2) [CLO-2]

[6 Marks]

Scenario:

A project coordinator explains a multi-step process to a new employee while other colleagues are talking nearby. The new employee struggles to remember the steps and performs them out of order.

Element	Answer
Sender	Project Coord
Receiver	new employee
Channel	live talking
Barrier	Colleagues
Feedback problem (1 line only)	performs out of order

Q3) [CLO-3]

[6 Marks]

Write a formal memo to all employees, followed by the appropriate structure/ format for the scenario

Scenario: You are the HR Officer at a company. Recently, employees have been arriving late to work frequently.

Management has decided to reinforce punctuality rules. Your memo must include

1. Purpose of memo
2. Problem
3. Action required
4. Professional Closing

Q4) [CLO-3]

[4 Marks]

Scenario: A student emails a professor to request a grade increase without providing valid justification. The professor must refuse.

Write a response in 4 parts:

1. Buffer
2. Reason
3. Refusal
4. Positive closing

Q5) [CLO 3]

[2 Marks]

Read the definition of business communication provided below, and write a comprehensive interpretation that synthesizes the key elements of each definition.

“Business communication is the sharing of information, thoughts, or ideas within a company or with someone outside the company. This kind of communication can happen between managers, employers, shareholders, customers, creditors, or the general community. It deals with business-related information, is practical, and has an objective.”